2025 Dennis Moore Oration & 1962 Awards Night

Wednesday, 15 October 2025 | University Club, Hackett Drive, Crawley

About Dennis Moore Oration & 1962 Awards Night

A Unique Opportunity

The Oration is named after Dennis Moore, the father-figure of computing in Western Australia. Professor Moore was inaugural chair of the WA Computer Society (which 4 years later became the ACS of today). He was also the Director of the very first computing centre in WA, an executive director of Government Computing, and subsequently appointed foundation Head of School of Computing at Curtin University of Technology in 1987.

Each year, the Australian Computer Society (ACS) presents a leading-edge oration by world class speakers.

The winner of the prestigious 1962 Prize and Medal Student Awards, sponsored by Dennis Moore, will also be announced.

Who's attending?

Professionals
